

DAVIS, Thomas L.
Raymond

Promoted

In a recent letter to his parents, Thomas L. Davis, son of Mr. and Desk Sergeant of Police Davis, 640 15th Avenue, tells of his promotion to the rank of corporal. This is the second rating Cpl. Davis has received since his arrival in France. He received basic training at Fort Bragg, N. C., serving with the Field Artillery since October, 1940. Later he attended Army Umpire School at Fort Jackson, Tenn. Davis was sent overseas in December of this year, according to a letter received by his mother, in which he stated his arrival in Northern Ireland.

Another brother, Pvt. Raymond J. Davis, is now receiving his basic training at Camp Wheeler, Ga.

August 3, 1944