Foreword

The Cauldron presents to you, the Class of 1942, a chronicle of your experiences. your successes, your failures; in fact, all those happenings which have made your high schools years at Liberty so memorable. As you passed beneath the lintels upon entering Liberty's doors in your quest of knowledge, you came face to face with such immortal inscriptions as "No man is free who is not master of himself" and "Inquire often, but judge rarely." Just as these familiar passages served to introduce you to Liberty High School years ago, this foreword now leads you into the history you have made at Liberty.

Senior Assembly

The senior class of this year continued the principles of class government which were inaugurated by the class of 1941.

These principles, fashioned after those of the government of our country, have been used to best advantage in deciding any action taken by the class as a whole. Each homeroom has its two representatives to the assembly which are elected by the homeroom members under the direct supervision of the teacher.

The assembly meets with the faculty advisers and discuss and vote upon matters brought before it by the class officers and homeroom representatives.

The group elected the editors to the key positions on the year book and supervised all decisions of seniors regarding graduation gowns, dances, financial matters, and any problems of behavior that confronted the class.

Cauldron Staff

In the beginning of January, a yearbook staff was selected by the faculty. With Miss Frances McGettigan as adviser and Bob McCleery as editor-in-chief, the huge task of editing the Cauldron was begun. Mitchell Connor, acting as the editor's right hand man, helped advise the staff editors on numerous undertakings. Althea George took care of correspondence and statistics in her capacity as business manager. Velma Jayne Ritchey and Evelyn Schaffer, under the supervision of Miss DeLong and Mr. Chiles respectively, took charge of the writing and correcting of individual biographies. That familiar click of a camera or flash of a flash bulb indicated the presence of the photographer, Stu Smiley, who not only photographed action shots but also all club, athletic, and faculty pictures. Mary Farrall's office was located in room 304 where she and her art staff worked laboriously. John Doster and Doris Brotzman compiled facts and wrote summaries of their respective sports sections. It was the duty of Katrina Stolp to outline the activities and the many participants in our clubs and organizations. Jessie Ayre, at the head of the features staff, helped to compile the necessary data for the last will and testament and class histories and directed the endless counting of senior ballots.

Senior Play

By the first of March, it seemed rather dubious as to whether or not a Senior Play was to be undertaken by the class of '42. But first impressions are often false, as it was soon proven. Once the ball began rolling, three one-act plays were selected and tryouts were announced. The number of people who responded to the announcement was remarkable. In the second week of March they began rehearsals.

Miss Mary Crow and Miss SallyAnn Geissinger, who seemed most capable of organizing it, were selected to help the seniors to prepare their annual play. They chose the people that they deemed best adapted for the parts. They are the following:

Birthday: September 15

"Youngie"

Commercial

Annetta's idea of a job is singing with a famous orchestra, but since she is a commercial student, she should be an excellent private secretary too. She hopes no one starts rationing good swing or putting priorities on jitterbugging.

Activities: Commercial Club 4.

ELSIE ANNE ZELKO

401 East Fourth Street

Birthday: May 16

"Jinx"

Distributive Education

Elsie's pet aversion is jealous people. She can always pass her leisure time in swimming, riding, or in enjoying a good adventure movie. Since her favorite subject was salesmanship, perhaps she will enter the sales force of some large store.

BETTY JANE ZIEGENFUSS

449 Verona Street

Birthday: May 3

"Reds"

Commercial

Betty is studious, pleasant, and full of laughs. She is always singing and loves to dance, but she despises writing compositions. Her greatest ambition is to become a secretary, but uniforms might steer her from her ambition.

Activities: Commercial Club 4.

JAMES TRUMAN ZIEGENFUSS

635 North Linden Street

Birthday: September 25

"Jimmy"

Commercial

Although Jimmy's favorite subject is commercial law, he is well-known for the arguments he raises in that class. His favorite sport is football, but he also enjoys baseball and swimming. His ambition is to become a part of the United States Navy.

AGNES ANNE ZIMNY

"Iggie"

419 East Wall Street

Birthday: January 16

Commercial

Agnes is gay and jolly and rather talkative at times. Her cheerfulness wins her many friends that she will have throughout her life. She is always willing to help anyone out of difficulty. Her ambition is to become a secretary to the President.

Activities: Commercial Club 4.

KATHERINE ELIZABETH ZOLL

"Zollie"

1503 Center Street

Birthday: May 4

General

To know Katherine is to like her, and her many friends have found this to be true. Her literary ability is something to speak of, and everyone admires her deep-toned voice. Her college career at William and Mary will surely be successful.

Activities: French Club 2, 3; College Club 3; Senior Play.

MARGUERITE EVELYN ZOLLINGER

"Maggie"

237 East Elizabeth Avenue

Birthday: May 21

General

Marguerite is that tall, young lady who can be seen dashing through the halls at any time. She is a very good student in mathematics. Marguerite will brighten up some college campus in the South next fall and will take all the ridiculing that goes with being a Yankee.

Activities: French Club 3, 4; Chemistry Club 4.

OLGA ZUKOVSKY

"Zukie"

317 Crest Avenue

Birthday: March 3

Scientific

Olga is studying to be a nurse. She will bring good cheer to her patients, for her merry laugh and wonderful personality have done much to enliven school life for everyone. She is quite a knitter but cannot stand housework.

Activities: Baseball 2, 3, 4; Hockey 4; Basketball 2, 3, 4.

GUS ZUMAS

1344 Center Street

Birthday: May 5

Scientific

Gus is a very quiet boy. When he is not busy attending school, he spends his time working. Baseball is his favorite sport. Gus' ability to work hard will help him to become an airplane pilot.

MARY LOUISE BAUDER

"Rusty"

1106 North Main Street

Birthday: March 11

General

Mary is that thoughtful, red-haired girl, who is always ready to lend a helping hand to anyone. Her interests are movies, novels, skating, and cooking. The line of least resistance for her is a soda fountain where "cokes" are sold.

Activities: Personality Plus Club 3.

ROBERT BLACK

"Dusty"

1728 Elm Street

Birthday: March 14

Scientific

Robert wants to be a United States Army test pilot. His greatest weakness is pretty girls, but he also likes dancing, track, and dramatic movies. Robert enjoys making new acquaintances.

MARVIN ALBERT FRITZINGER*"Fritz"

56 East Ettwein Street

Birthday: January 4

General

Do not be surprised if you see Fritz as a member of a leading band in the future, for he plays the trumpet very well. He also excels at basketball and dates. Fritz was an excellent Spanish student, but history just could not interest him.

Activities: Band 2.

WILLIAM FRANKLIN HORNING*"Bill"

46 Hillmond Avenue

Birthday: May 26

Distributive Education

It is hard to find a quieter lad in the class than Bill, except when he is trying to find something to argue about. Declaring his pet aversion to be girls, Bill spends much time at auto races. After graduation, Bill wants to drive a Greyhound bus.

GLADYS FRANCES KLINE*"Snookie"

509 Ontario Street

Birthday: April 4

Scientific

Riding and rhythm are the passwords of Gladys' life. The horse has not been born that she cannot ride. The song has not been written that she cannot dance to. With her high flying ideas and ideals, she will make the grade.

Activities: Liberty Life 4; Riding Club 4; Biology Club 3.

JOHN MIHALAKIS

740 East Fourth Street

Birthday: September 26

Scientific

John is a very dependable chap who will always be remembered for his activities as business manager of the "Liberty Life." His favorite sports are baseball and football. History and sociology are his favorite studies. John's ambition is to become a journalist.

Activities: Liberty Life 3, 4; German Club 4.

GREGORY SANTORO, JR.*"Greg"

1233 East Third Street

Birthday: April 22

General

Gregory is a quiet fellow who seldom gets into trouble. He spends much of his time after school in designing. He enjoys trying to find out what makes the world go around. His ingenuity and logical mind will serve him as an inventor or mechanical engineer.

ANNA HELEN SAWARYNSKI*"Shorty"

1500 East Seventh Street

Birthday: March 7

Commercial

Anna is a pleasant, friendly girl whose pet aversion is conceited people. She is most interested in ice skating and roller skating. Collecting cook books and souvenirs is Anna's hobby. Anna wants to be a stenographer.

Activities: Commercial Club 4.

JENNIE AGNES SAWARYNSKI*"Gungie"

1500 East Seventh Street

Birthday: March 7

Commercial

Here is a girl who ice skates, dances, and talks well. When Jennie enters a quiet room, things begin to buzz. She likes to collect postcards and souvenirs. The business world will claim her after graduation.

Activities: Commercial Club 4.

ROBERT JAMES SCHOENEN*"Bobby"

55 West Broad Street

Birthday: May 25

Commercial

Bobby is not boisterous but those who are acquainted with him all know that he is a good sport. He is never irritable and always helpful. His excellent character and engaging ways are sure to carry him far in his chosen work.

KARL JOHN WEISKOPF

735 First Avenue

Birthday: October 9

General

Karl is one of the many fisherman in the high school and may be found angling any nice spring day. He worked hard in football and also likes softball. Although he has no main ambition, his friendly attitude will help him in the road of life.

Activities: Football 2, 3, 4.

ELAINE MAE WILLIAMS

526 Forest Avenue

Birthday: August 25

Commercial

Elaine is a quiet girl, but she is always ready to help the other fellow. To these qualities, she adds ability as a student. The ambition next to her heart is to be a secretary in some important industry.

SCHOOL LIFE

Art Club

Whish!!!! That was a member of the Art Club scurrying to a meeting or rushing to finish a new project.

Exhibitions, contests, stage-settings, costumes. That's our life as an Art Club member. Do we complain? No. We love it!

Starting in September and plunging right in, we managed to come up with a full schedule. During Art Week, an exhibition of Oriental Wood-block Prints was brought into the art room and a collection of ink drawings featuring Early Bethlehem were on exhibition in the Public Library. Professor Howland gave an illustrated lecture to the Art Club and guests. The subject of the lecture was the Christmas Story and was illustrated by lantern slides of Masters' Works.

Our next accomplishment was the annual Vesper Service which was in keeping with the celebration of the Bi-Centennial. The historic background required authentic details and much research was required for settings, costumes, and properties. The stage resembled the choir loft of the Old Moravian Chapel featuring white pews and balustrade. A huge gold frame was the setting of the tableaux which depicted Christmases in early Bethlehem.

After completing the decoration of the faculty lunch room, the next major tasks were the Senior Play and the Operetta. Three one-act plays, featuring three separate scenes, necessitated the use of the new cyclorama. Variety was achieved by the use of properties and details. We had plenty of chance for gorgeous bright colors in the operetta. A tropical garden, somewhere "South of the Border", was a riot of color both in settings and costumes.

Well, we've come to the end of another year and we can look back and say it was a year filled with accomplishments. We are well pleased.

Band

The students of Liberty High School are very proud of their band, which this year was composed of one hundred and sixteen members. As usual the band put on a fine display at all football and basketball games. They also took part in the Parents' Day Concert, at which time the seniors were presented with either letters or pins.

Under the excellent direction of Mr. Joseph Ricapito, the 1941-42 band lived up to its reputation of previous years. On April 10, 1942, the annual concert was held. This year, for the eighth consecutive time, Dr. Edwin Franko Goldman was guest conductor with his son, Richard Franko Goldman.

Much of the success of the band was due to an organization of the mothers of the band members. Beside giving moral support, they sent the Seniors on a trip to New York and provided a picnic for the entire band.

The B-Hi Girl Reserves

The B-Hi Girl Reserves is an organization in Liberty High School composed of seventy-three Junior and Senior girls, under the guidance of Miss Blessing and Miss Moll. Their meetings are held on the first and third Friday of each month. During the past year, the girls have enjoyed an active and instructive program, all of which has been based on the Girl Reserves' aim "to face life squarely and to find and give the best."

From time to time during the past season, the group visited places of interest in Bethlehem; namely, the Globe-Times, St. Luke's Hospital, and Mowrer's Ice Cream Plant.

Several prominent speakers have lectured before the group: Mrs. Judson Turton spoke on clothing and good-grooming; Henri, of Henri's Beauty Culture Academy, lectured on beauty culture and hair-dressing; Mrs. Paul Kreitz spoke on Health Subjects; and Mrs. Wilson Leon Godshall displayed Oriental costumes of China and Japan.

As the crowning feature of the club's activities, the group enjoyed a trip to New York City.

Advisers: Miss Moll and Miss Blessing

Biology Club

The main purpose of the Biology Club is to further the knowledge of its members in that branch of science. This has been accomplished by the tours and lectures attended by the club during the past year. The most interesting tour was that taken to Muhlenberg College. Some of the things shown to the group were the ornithological museum, the vivarium, the general museum, the biological laboratories, and equipment. Injection of rats, rabbits, and guinea pigs were shown, and blood slides were distributed. This was followed by a lecture on immunity. Other tours were to Lehigh and Lafayette. Lecturers enjoyed by the club were Dr. Dorothy Miller Sindel and Dr. John W. Lux.

A new program of student lectures was started in which each member of the club had to speak on some subject pertaining to science.

However, not to give the impression that the Biology Club is entirely serious, several of the social events will be enumerated. A dance was held in the gym, several parties were held on special occasions, and a swimming party and picnic were held at Willow Park.

Chemistry Club

The Chemistry Club, one of the newest organizations in the high school, was founded only last fall under the leadership of Mr. Nagy. The membership of this club is restricted, of course, to chemistry students, and especially to those students, who are interested in chemistry as a career or a vocation. One of the interesting meetings was a movie on radium, shown by Mr. Nagy. One of the groups also made ink during a meeting and compared the resulting product with commercial inks. Another group made hand lotion and distributed it to the assembled members.

Commercial Club

Through the interest of Mrs. Julia Baum Blumberg to further the cause of commercial education in Liberty High School, the Commercial Club was re-organized on Wednesday, October 8, 1941.

The main purpose of the club is to get the members ready for the business world.

To foster contacts among the students of the Commercial Department, Mrs. Blumberg secured the following to give talks: Mr. Stuart E. Hockenbury, General Manager of Hotel Bethlehem, spoke on "What Constitutes A Good Secretary"; Mrs. Ada K. Wernett, Head of the Secretarial Department at Cedar Crest College in Allentown, Pennsylvania, spoke on the qualities of a good secretary. Through these speakers, the members of the club have learned just what is expected of them when they assume positions in the business world.

Distributive Education

"I wonder why that girl is in such a hurry."

"Oh, didn't you know? She's a member of the new class at Liberty High School—The Distributive Education Class. She's on her way to work."

Such comments have doubtless been frequently heard since last fall because graduating this year is a group of fifteen "pioneers"—students who formed the first co-operative class at Liberty High School, and "earned while they learned."

This ambitious group of seniors and post-graduate students spent the morning hours at school, and in the afternoon was busily engaged putting the knowledge thus gained into actual practice in the local stores.

Their course of study required fifteen hours of school work and a minimum of fifteen hours of work experience weekly.

As a part of their study, the class has made many trips of interest, including visits to factories and to stores to watch various store operations, such as receiving, marking, delivery, advertising, and display work, and other "behind the scene" activities.

Outstanding events of the year, after the excitement of full-time work at Christmas, included the Easter Candy Sale in March, a trip through New York stores in April, and Open House in May when parents and employers came to review the work done throughout the year.

Officers of the class elected for a half year were:

Secretary .....	Marie Swope and Madelyn Gross
Treasurer .....	Madelyn Gross and Louise Becker
Scribe .....	Mildred Kramer (re-elected)
	Madelyn Gross and Cora Romano

French Club

"Le seance du Cercle Francais est ouverte," said Doris, and so opened another meeting of the French Club of Liberty High School. In giving you an idea of the meetings of this club, we will endeavor to take you through a typical meeting. "Que la secretaire veuille bien faire lire la raconte de la derniere seance et la tresoriere faire remasser de l'argent," and the secretary, Katrina Stolp read the minutes and called the roll, while Audrey Roche, the treasurer, took the dues. Then began the actual meeting.

First, a song, "Alouette", to which the members respond lustily. Then a comedy, "Le Petit Malade", given in French. Now another song, "Quand Madelon", a report on Debussy, followed by one of his piano selections, and the meeting continues with other interesting topics.

Most of the meeting is carried on in French. This is to allow the members a better understanding of the language when it is spoken in conversation. The club is under the able guidance of Miss Eleanor Mumbauer and Mrs. Ruth Tucker.

Boys' Glee Club

Under the fine leadership of Miss Marion Graham and Mrs. Van Dora M. Fitch, the Girls' and Boys' Glee Clubs have once again completed their usual successful season.

In October the Girls' Glee Club entertained the Pennsylvania State Educational Association with several selections at its annual meeting held this year in Liberty High School. A Thanksgiving Day program was given by the combined organizations in November at two student assemblies.

In conjunction with the Art and English Departments, and in commemoration of Bethlehem's Bicentennial Celebration, the Glee Clubs presented a historical Christmas vesper service this year. The Glee Club members, garbed in costumes of the early colonial period (1741-1800), sang old Moravian anthems and hymns. The musical compositions had been composed or sung in Bethlehem during the colonial period according to translations from the Bethlehem Diary.

The Glee Clubs sang at the annual band concert with the band under the direction of the guest conductors—Dr. Edwin Goldman and his son, Richard.

The climax of this busy concert season came with the performance of the operetta "Riding Down the Sky," by Geoffrey O'Hara. The principals were directed by Miss Graham and the choruses by Mrs. Fitch.

The principals of the cast were as follows:

Ben Baker .....	Richard Hensinger

Hi-Y

The Liberty High School Hi-Y Club under the able supervision of its adviser, Mr. Harry S. Dando, has completed an active and instructive program. The object of this year's program was to follow the platform of the Hi-Y Club: to create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian living. In accomplishing these objectives, the club enjoyed educational trips to local places of business, to local hospitals, and to Lehigh University.

Among its many activities, the Club conducted a Chapel program in which William Hardy, Leonard Luckenbach, Ralph Patterson, Donald Drumheller, and the Hi-Y octet, under the direction of Miss Marion Graham, participated. At the Father and Son banquet held on February 26, the club was well represented. The octet sang several selections at this banquet. Edward Cummings, a member of the club, gave the toast in behalf of the sons. The year's activities were concluded by a picnic and a trip to New York.

Junior Red Cross

Bethlehem High School's first Junior Red Cross Club, since the end of the first World War, was organized in October, 1940. It was later re-organized in September, 1941. Since 1940 its membership has grown with its importance, until at the present time, it has enrolled sixty-five ambitious students as members. Every Tuesday afternoon in Room 104, one can hear the constant clicking of busy needles making sweaters, caps, mittens, and beanies for the needy. The knitting division is very proud of its accomplishments, and its advanced members are comparable to the regular Senior Red Cross knitters. Merry laughter and conversation were interwoven with the instructions given by the teachers who willingly offered their services as instructors.

Another busy room on Tuesday afternoons is the sewing room. There one can hear the buzzing of sewing machines under the control of proud members who made dresses and quilt covers.

Liberty High is very proud of this organization since it symbolizes the true American spirit of the school.

Latin Club . . . Inter Nos

Under the supervision of Miss Evelyn Luckey, Inter Nos, comprised of first and second year Latin students, was organized this year for the first time. Membership in the organization was not compulsory, but about fifty of the first and second year students became members. The club selected the following motto: "Studentium, a studentibus, studentium causa." The members wanted to know more about the Roman and the Latin language.

The club met once a month, and a committee planned the programs. These programs included skits comparing Roman and American life, plays, talks on different phases of Roman life, Latin games, group singing in Latin, and instrumental numbers. Members were urged to present their suggestions for program material in order that programs might be more interesting and entertaining.

The officers for the year were as follows:

President .....	Joseph Albert
Vice President .....	William Jameson
Secretary .....	Pollyanna Bruch
Treasurer .....	Samuel Connor
Publicity Secretary .....	Marjorie Zable
Adviser .....	Miss Evelyn Luckey

Latin Club . . . Societas Latina

If you happened to hear strange sounds coming from Room 119 on a certain Friday, it was a meeting of the Societas Latina in session. The club, composed of Cicero and Virgil students, met the third or fourth Friday of the month during the third period, under the supervision of Miss Evelyn Luckey.

The program of the club provided information and entertainment whereby the students became familiar with Roman life, customs, mythology, and famous men. Special features in addition to the regular reports and topics were a debate, a play in Latin, and a "What's my name?" Contest. The meetings also had a gayer side, for games were played and familiar songs were sung in Latin. Sometimes the songs were even popular ones, which had been translated into Latin in Res Gestae, the newspaper to which the students subscribe.

When the roll was called, members answered in different ways; sometimes they merely responded adsum, other times they gave Latin sentences on selected subjects or famous quotations or proverbs.

Two parties were held during the year, one at Christmas and one in June. These gave members an opportunity to become better acquainted.

Liberty Life

With the organization of practically a new staff, the first issue of Liberty Life was published on Friday, September 19, 1941. This inaugural edition of the bi-weekly publication met with favorable response, and the paper gained support through the year.

The special and enlarged Christmas issue was one of the highlights of the year, while the Commencement issue represented the staff's greatest effort.

Supplemented by Scholastic Roto, Liberty Life was edited by Co-Editors-In-Chief, Kay Woodman and Stuart Smiley; Feature Editor, Marian Finkelstein; News-Editor, Gladys Kline; and Sports Editor, Herman Bastianell until mid-term, when Ruth Zehner took the place vacated by Kay Woodman who moved to Atlanta, Georgia, and Mimi Gilchrist replaced Gladys Kline as News-Editor.

The trip to Moravian College for Men gave the aspiring journalists an opportunity to work at publishing a college newspaper. The accomplishment of leaving Liberty High School with a well-established school paper gives the staff and its advisers a feeling of great satisfaction, for many obstacles had to be overcome in making the students and the faculty realize the value of Liberty Life.

Library Club

Although it got off to late start, the Library Club has shown more enthusiasm and enterprise this year than ever before.

Any student interested in books and library work is eligible to join the club. New members are accepted up to the December meeting.

The purpose of the club is two-fold:

1. To give students a better understanding of the value and use of the library.
2. To serve as a guide in fostering an interest in Library Science as a vocation.

Business meetings are held the first Friday of each month in the library. This year an important feature of each meeting has been the book contest held among the members of the club. The two persons who accumulate the highest number of points will be awarded respectively, a book and a year's subscription to a magazine.

Other special features have included the annual visits to the Lehigh University Library and the plant of the Bethlehem Globe-Times.

Nature Study Club

Last year the Nature Study Club enjoyed a highly successful season. The object of the club, under the sponsorship of Mr. Warren M. Horne, crafts instructor, has been to establish a knowledge and love of nature in its members.

Field trips have been made along the Monocacy Creek, to the Lehigh University Campus, Fountain Hill Reservoir Park, Nisky Hill Cemetery, and the Lehigh University Aboretum. Various objects, such as birds' nests, plants, plates on birds, articles and scenes on nature were collected by the various members and discussed at the indoor meetings.

The specimens found in the exhibit cases on the second floor were placed there by the Bethlehem Natural Science Association and served as a study project for the club. Among these specimens are birds' eggs, fungi, minerals, a hornet's nest as seen in the woods, a hornet's nest with the outside covering removed to show the interior structure, and a splendid collection of native trees placed there by Mr. Rollin Keim, a member of the association.

Orchestra

This year, the orchestra tried to make up in quality what it lacked in quantity. With so few violin players, it was extremely hard to maintain a well-balanced organization. Mr. Ricapito is to be congratulated for his untiring efforts in attempting to keep up the traditionally high calibre of previous years. Although the annual concert was not held this year, the orchestra played for the senior play, operetta, Parents' Day Concert, and Commencement exercises. The members joined with the band members to hold the annual Hallowe'en party in October and the Christmas entertainment in December for their parents. In March the entire orchestra was privileged to see and hear the famous Rochester Symphony Orchestra perform in our high school auditorium. The year's activities were brought to a close with the trip to New York and the annual picnic in June.

The high school in general is always proud of the achievements of the orchestra, and it can be especially proud this year, a year marked by obstacles and hardships.

Personality-Plus Club

One of Liberty High School's most recent organizations, The Personality Plus Club, was organized again this year with Miss Isabel Bury as the new faculty adviser. Each member of this club is a student enrolled in one of the Home Economics Courses.

The members of this club have been very fortunate in having many interesting speakers this year. Doctor Dorothy Sindel spoke to the girls on sexual hygiene, Mr. Konolige spoke on hair styles, and Miss Nancy Deetz, a former member of the club, spoke on personality.

The girls in the club have been doing their bit for defense this year by filling gift boxes for the Red Cross.

The greatest social event of the year was the Sweetheart Dance held on February thirteenth. Jessie Ayre was named "Personality Sweetheart" with Sally Dague, Joyce Heller, Charlotte Martin and Katrina Stolp as her attendants. Among the other social events were a hay ride, a Hallowe'en party, and a social meeting, at which the girls of the Charm Club of Fountain Hill High School were guests.

The club held their annual Christmas Sale, selling candy, cakes, and articles which the girls made in club periods.

Some of the girls attended the American Home Economics Association Convention on May first and second at Hershey, Pa.

These are but a few of the activities of the Personality Plus Club. Our year has been filled with many companiable, educational, and enjoyable experiences.

Scribblers Club

The Scribblers, under the guidance of Miss Mary Crow, have been working energetically this year. The club is designed to help students with literary talent or to write new and varied forms of verse and prose. In connection with this type of work, a class, Creative Writing, was originated this year. It meets two periods a week and is also under the leadership of Miss Crow.

A project undertaken by the Scribblers and Creative Writing Class was the writing of the narration for the Christmas program.

The Scholastic contest was entered again this year, and a number of short stories, poems, humorous sketches, book reviews, essays, and autobiographical sketches were submitted.

Several members entered the American Legion Essay Contest, and one of the able scribblers, Bernadine Ziegler, won first prize for underclassmen.

During the year several interesting chapel programs were designed and written by the class, which is now busily preparing a scenario depicting the use and value of Latin in modern times.

The Seniors leave the club with the hope that it will continue aiding those students desiring help in creative writing.

Silver Spurs Riding Club

The first Riding Club in the history of the high school was organized this year by student request. Through the efforts of Phyllis Taft, Miss Clark was secured as sponsor.

The group has enjoyed excellent instruction by Mr. John Simon at the Northampton Riding and Hunt Club. Several members have acquired considerable skill in jumping. When snow prevented riding, sleigh riding and skijoring were enjoyed. In the spring the club took an all day trip, stopping for a picnic lunch.

A Scrap Book of clippings and pictures has been kept by the club and may be seen in the school library.

Societas Honoris

The Societas Honoris, under the presidency of Leonard Luckenbach, has had a very successful 1941-1942 season.

Due to the national emergency, the Lehigh Valley Debating Association to which the club belongs, decided to limit the number of debates with distant schools to three. These debates took place at Slatington, S. Whitehall, and Bethlehem.

The social activities of the season started with an outing given to the new members. On March 2, a Parents' Night program was held in conjunction with the Art Club. This program included a debate and an art exhibit. On March 6, a semi-formal dance was held in our gymnasium.

This year our faculty adviser, H. David Randall, has been ably assisted by Mr. Klein.

The major question, "Resolved, that modern methods of commercial advertising are detrimental to society", has proved humorous, entertaining, and interesting.

Spanish Club . . . New Spain

The aim of the Spanish Club this past year was to learn more about the countries in which Spanish is spoken and to acquire a better understanding of the Spanish language. This aim has been carried out through the many outstanding programs which we have had in our bi-weekly meetings. A variety of Spanish songs have been sung and many interesting Spanish dialogues and plays have been presented. A number of Spanish word games were played to increase the student's Spanish vocabulary, while reports on Spanish speaking countries have increased the student's knowledge of our Southern neighbors.

The constitution of the club was altered this past year in order to have it resemble more closely that of the democratic governments of Latin America. The plan was designed by James Halkins, president of the Club.

The Spanish classes under the direction of Miss Marion Clark were shown a series of films on Latin America. Some of these have been "Rollin' Down to Mexico", "Story of Bananas", and "Coffee from Brazil to You". These films were lent to the department by the Pan-American Union.

Student Council

With the aid and advice of Mr. J. Walter Gapp, the Student Council of Liberty High School was re-established this year.

The Council is composed of one representative from each homeroom. These representatives are elected by the pupils in their respective homerooms.

The purpose of the Council is to act as an advisory board, and to recommend steps to be taken which will improve conditions in school.

Many things have been accomplished by the Student Council. A recording machine was purchased to aid in the promotion of social activities. The bonfire held before the Bethlehem-Allentown football clash was met with great enthusiasm. The sale of Defense Stamps was proposed by the Council, and under the management of Miss Schiff, stamps have been sold weekly.

Third Year German Club

The German Club of 1941-42, under the supervision of Miss Muriel Wilson, held its meetings monthly. The members are all third year German students.

During the first semester new officers were elected monthly in order that everyone might have a chance to conduct a meeting since they were conducted in German. However, permanent officers were elected for the second semester.

At the meeting, short plays were presented, poems and humorous compositions read, and German songs sung.

The club held a Koffeeklatsch at the home of its adviser, Miss Wilson, just before the Christmas vacation. The Christmas Story was read, a short play was presented, and many carols were sung, all in German.

Miss Hess, former third year German teacher here, honored the club on March 25. She spoke about her journey through Switzerland, especially the section where the play Wilhelm Tell took place. She illustrated her lecture with slides.

Cheerleaders

This faithful group of boys and girls, coached by Frank Kernan, led our teams to victory from the sidelines, through many tough and deciding games. For the first time in the history of Liberty High School, girls represented our teams in battle and proved their worth time and time again. The cheerleaders worked very efficiently together and looked flashy in their new uniforms of red, white, and blue. Original formations and new ideas, created by the cheerleaders, were outstanding throughout the season.

Returning for the 1942-43 season will be Virginia Noll, Irene Frankenfield, Olive Kachline, Anita Silfies, Thelma Badel, Shirley Aldinger, Samuel Cann, Richard Hauze, and Peter Lukehart; while to institutions of higher learning, we send Jimmy Anders and Fred Knouss. One of our members, Franklin Hawk, a junior, joined the United States Navy in April. Hats off to Frank!

Football

Coach: John W. Butler

First row (l. to r.): Case, Stephan, Perlo, Engler, Fritchman, Hoch, Moyer, Doster, Schwartz, Calvo, Venninger.
 Second row: Coach Butler, Kuthy, Gonzales, Peters, Krasnai, Paden, Minarik, Miller, Gross, DaRos, Doria.
 Third row: Fink, Schrader, Kushinka, Steely, Moyscan, Messics, Bednarik, Kuhar, Richak, Hartzell.
 Fourth row: Sacarakes, Lanseik, Engels, Bandish, Nitowski, Rohal, Carl, Melloy, Jones, Brown.
 Fifth row: Ass't. Coach McLernon, Achey, Grebs, Ryback, Lease (trainer), Taylor, Muntain, Wagner, Fictious, Peters, Hudak.

Coach Johnny Butler was faced with the task of building a football team around one backfield replacement and two linemen with limited experience, for he had lost thirty-three members of last year's squad. In answer to Butler's call for practice, one hundred thirty-five candidates reported on August 25, most of them without any previous experience. In all too short a time the first game drew near, and Butler found his team not only lacking in experience but also in weight, for the line averaged 167 and the backs 165, compared to last year's 200 pound line and a backfield averaging better than 175.

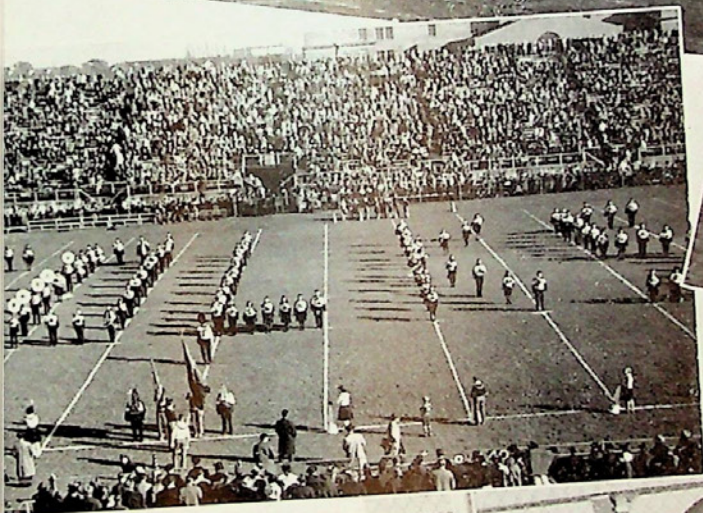

When the unfortunate infantile paralysis situation arose which forced the cancellation of the Sunbury game, West Philadelphia readily agreed to a contest. Considering the fact that the "Speedboys" emerged runner-up in the Philadelphia Suburban League, Bethlehem's inexperienced club played well; the game ended with the score deadlocked, 0-0.

Roxborough, one of the better teams from the Philadelphia area, upset Bethlehem, 12-0, our first defeat in 15 games. Although our defense was "spotty" at times, the Bethlehem team showed a marked improvement over the West Philadelphia game.

In a surprise win the following Saturday, Bethlehem defeated Dunmore, 7-0. The touchdown was scored on a pass play despite the fact that the field was soggy.

Bethlehem scored in every period as they rolled over Scranton Tech, last year's Eastern Conference Champions, 32-6. In less than a minute after the opening kickoff, Bethlehem scored a touchdown, the result of a poor punt made by the Scranton tailback. The remainder of the game was largely dominated by Bethlehem drives which resulted in four more touchdowns.

In our first conference game, Bethlehem traveled to Reading and defeated the "Red Knights," 25-6. Held on even terms throughout the first half, Bethlehem broke loose the second half and rolled over the "Red Knights", scoring three touchdowns, although they were stopped twice within Reading's 20 yard line.

"The Hurricane" scored its most impressive victory of the season when it upset the highly favored Easton eleven, 19-0. The highlight of the first half was Bethlehem's return of a punt 40 yards for a touchdown behind beautiful down-field blocking. In the final period, Bethlehem drove 83 yards for a touchdown, which was followed by another, the result of an intercepted pass.

Hazleton broke our four game winning streak when they defeated the Butler Boys, 6-0. Bethlehem had the edge in statistics, but on the scoreboard Hazleton was on the top, the result of a pass play which netted 25 yards and a touchdown. It was Hazleton's day, for they recovered all three Bethlehem fumbles and stopped a Bethlehem drive on their own 2 yard line.

Bethlehem outplayed unbeaten Phillipsburg, but the old rivals battled to a scoreless tie in a game played in our stadium. Although the Bethlehem team was heavily outweighed, it drove to the 11, 19, and 32 yard lines on three successive drives which lacked the necessary scoring punch. Bethlehem's line-play was exceptional, and the hard running backs made the most of the situation.

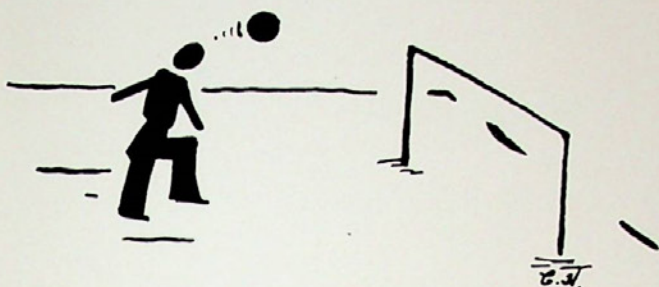

In a hectic game played at Shamokin, Bethlehem defeated the "Greyhounds", 38-20. With the score tied at half time, 20-20, Bethlehem spurted in the second half to tally the greatest number of touchdowns scored against Shamokin in fifteen years. Bethlehem scored two touchdowns in three plays, but the Shamokin pass offensive tied the score and threw a fearful scare into the Bethlehem stands.

In Bethlehem's final game of the season played in our stadium on Thanksgiving Day, Allentown defeated our boys 12-0. The first half ended in a scoreless deadlock with Bethlehem having a slight edge in the statistics. Early in the third period, Bethlehem employed a deceptive spread formation, the spark to a drive which was stopped by an intercepted pass on Allentown's 35. It was this same spread, which resulted in an Allentown touchdown, the climax to the return of an intercepted pass to our 15. Late in the fourth period, Allentown had the ball on our 38, the result of a poor punt made by the Bethlehem tailback. By their victory over Bethlehem, Allentown completed their season undefeated, and became the unofficial champions of Big Fifteen.

The annual Public Testimonial for Bethlehem High's football team and band was given by the Bethlehem Kiwanis Club, December 3, 1941, with Ray Morrison, coach of Temple University, guest speaker.

Soccer

Coach: William Stark

The Bethlehem High booters, after having had their six year undefeated record broken in the 1941 season, returned to the form characteristic of the teams which compiled such an enviable record, and started another victory streak by going through the 1941-1942 season without a setback.

After starting the season with two wins over Springtown, despite a plucky team of opponents, Liberty took its traditional rivals Hellertown, the team which broke their six year undefeated season last year, into camp with two well-deserved victories.

The Reading Red Knights proved a most dangerous enemy for our Bethlehem Boys, but Coach Stark's team deadlocked the Reading boys on two occasions. In the game with Upper Darby High, Bethlehem had little difficulty in registering a final score of 4-1.

Basketball

Coach: William Emrey

The red and blue cagers opened the 1941-42 basketball season with but one varsity holdover, Jimmy Case. However, Coach Emrey found a determined bunch of boys, who were willing to work; therefore, he produced a team which proved itself versatile against all opponents.

Bethlehem defeated a strong Hazleton team which won the first half league championship, but met defeat at the hands of Allentown and Pottsville; thereby finishing fourth in league competition.

Scoring was distributed fairly evenly. The boys played as a team, with no one individual starring. Walt Davis paced the Bethlehem boys with 117 points, with Charlie Bednarick a close second with 102 points.

Coach Emrey enjoyed his last year as head coach of basketball at Liberty High, having resigned after the last game of the season. His absence as coach will be keenly felt, for he was the real "father" of athletics at Liberty High School. The assistant coach was Joseph Preletz, a former protege of Emrey. The student manager was Vernon Bitler.

Varsity players were as follows: Davis, Case, Correll, Hoch, Bednarick, Calvo, Messics, and Saemmer.

The Junior Varsity team was composed of the following: Kocsis, Emrey, Fenicle, Correll, Goodman, Conners, Doster, Bucho, Morgan, Schwartz, Paulus, and Shive.

Wrestling

First row: Edward Gaydos, Michael Bandurich, Peter Malloy, Donald Reynolds, Daniel James.
Second row: George Peters, Clifford Steinbach, Robert Limons, John Doster, Coach Stark, Forrest Bast, Libor Sandor, Howard Unangst, Albert Koehler, manager.

When Coach Stark called the wrestling squad together the first week, he was greeted by a large group of inexperienced boys. There were only three regulars returning from last year's team, one of which would be ineligible at mid-year.

George Peters and Forrest Bast were named co-captains.

In the first meet of the season, Bethlehem's inexperience proved fatal, for a powerful Washington High team defeated our boys, 29-18.

Bethlehem then traveled to Abington and scored an impressive 33-6 victory.

The following week our boys pulled an upset when they defeated Forty-Fort High 24-14. Forty-Fort won the team championship held later in the season at Penn State.

Traveling to Kingston, the Bethlehem "Grapplers" suffered their worst defeat in many years, 28-11.

"Lady Luck" jolted Bethlehem again when Steelton upset our boys, 24-23. Steelton also placed a finalist at the P. I. A. A. State Finals.

The final two meets with Upper Merion and Wyoming Seminary J. V.'s were easy victories for the Liberty boys.

Three district champions from Bethlehem High failed in their quest for state championships.

Howard Unangst won his preliminary bout in the 127 lb. class, but was defeated in the quarter final by McAllister, Lower Merion, who emerged runner-up.

John Doster, 165 lb., was defeated by Bailey, Clearfield, in the quarter final bout.

Captain Forrest Bast, 185 lb. entry advanced to the semi-final round before being defeated by an entry from Waynesburg. Bast won his quarter round bout on a third period fall. Bast finished dual meets undefeated and by racking up 30 points won the Sheridan trophy.

INTERMURAL WRESTLING

The Sophomores repeated their victory of last year by again winning the interclass wrestling meet with a total of 44 points. The Juniors were second with 22, while the Seniors collected 14 points.

The meet was highlighted by the large number of falls, probably caused by the fact that most boys had some knowledge of the science of wrestling.

The champions were:

- 110 lbs. George Fosdick,
Sophomore
- 115 lbs. Glenn Williams,
Sophomore
- 121 lbs. Ralph McKinnon,
Junior
- 127 lbs. Herman Gestl,
Sophomore
- 133 lbs. John Barrett,
Senior
- 138 lbs. Stanley Thevenet,
Sophomore
- 145 lbs. Donald Vollman,
Junior
- 154 lbs. Robert Limons,
Sophomore
- 165 lbs. Richard Dorfman,

Track and Field

Coach: William Emrey

Included in the group are: Pysher, Gunn, Wallace, Schwartz, Bast, DaRos, Miller, Hardy, Groeger, R. Brown, Houck, Nash, Luckenbach, Keefe, Pepper, Dubbs, Zalik, Burtis, Smith, Quarry, Hutchinson, Schaffer, Moyer, Burgenback, Van Kueran, Strohl, Peterson, Ortwein, Dougherty, Abbott, Kohler, Evans, Argerman, Haas, Morgan, Erdlerman, H. Brown, Collins, W. Emrey, Nonnemacher.

Over a hundred candidates responded to Coach Bill Emrey's call for track practice. Of this group, only four men were returning lettermen; namely, Jack Keefe, Emerson Miller, Joseph Groeger, and James Schwartz.

"Pop" trained a new combination of Bethlehem boys to represent Liberty at Penn Relays, April 25. Keefe, Hardy, Groeger, and Gunn ran the mile relay. Bethlehem did exceptionally well in finishing in sixth place considering the fact that one of the contestants fell during the race.

Bethlehem upset Allentown's track team in their dual meet on April 29. The highlight of the meet was the 880 during which an Allentown runner was disqualified for fouling a Bethlehem representative. Allentown objected and refused to place entries in the remaining three events. This decision, of course, gave Bethlehem a sufficient number of points to clinch the event.

Baseball

Coach: John W. Butler

First row: Doll, Bednarik, Muntian, Case, Coffey, Sideris, Hudak, Kelchner, Racosky, Serman, Novakovits.
 Third row: Philip Phillippi, faculty manager; Connors, Halkias, Jones, Nemes, manager; Greenamoyer, Dorney, Salvage.

When Coach Johnny Butler issued his call for baseball candidates, approximately 60 boys reported for practice. Of these boys, only one, Racosky, a shortstop, was the only returning letterman, although some boys had limited playing experience on last year's club. Butler's job was to sort this group of would-be players and organize them into a winning combination. Roger Doll was the starting pitcher for the Liberty Boys for the first several games. He had limited experience last year, although he won several games. Coach Butler shifted his lineup after Bethlehem lost the first several games. With this recomposed lineup, Butler's boys developed into a fairly consistent winning combination.

Tennis

Coach: Sinclair Chiles

William McIntyre, Rolland Correll, Coach Chiles, Dick Smith, Bob McCleery.

The Bethlehem Tennis Team during the 1941 season lost only two games—both to a powerful Allentown combine. Considering the fact that the Bethlehem lads had no home courts, Coach Sinny Chiles did extremely well in coaching his team to second place in the league.

With the return of Captain Bill McIntyre, the only Bethlehem man to go through a season undefeated in singles competition, and Roland Correll, one of the steadiest men on the team, the outlook for the 1942 season is very bright.

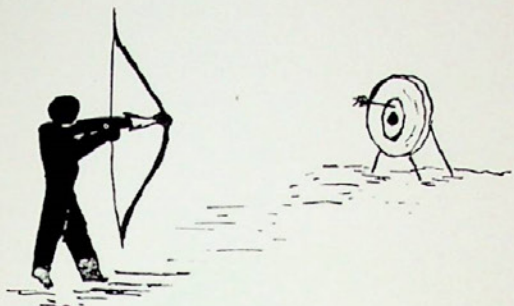

The other three members were determined by a fall tournament which was won by Dick Smith with Ed Cummings and Bob McCleery giving him plenty of competition. These lads will make up for the loss of Clyde Oskin, Harry Tachovsky, and Tom Ullman, all on last year's squad.

Last year Bethlehem held all its home matches on the courts of the Bethlehem Tennis Club. This year, however, the boys have absolutely no courts on which they can practice free of charge. Consequently, one may frequently see Bob McCleery, and Ed Cummings playing on the Bethlehem Tennis Club courts or Dick Smith and Rolland Correll on a court out in the Rosemont section.

Archery

Coach: Angeline B. Griffith

Second row (l. to r.): Richard Gold, Robert Campbell, Joseph Paller, Dudely Eifert, Hugh Conahan,
Paul Cowin, Vernon Bauer, Ted Shook, George Bournias.

Although the Archery Club was not allowed to shoot indoors, they participated in tournaments during the winter. In the fall the club shot a tournament by mail with Caldwell High School and since Caldwell was unable to shoot, Liberty Bowmen won by a forfeit. During the winter, the club was invited to shoot at the Bethlehem Archery Club range every Tuesday night. On January 18, 1942, the club entered a team in a local tournament. Their score was 1314. On February 22, 1942, in another tournament their score was 1243. On April 19, 1942, the score increased to 1952.

The officers of the club are as follows:

President .....	Paul Cowin
Vice-President .....	Vernon Bauer
Secretary .....	Ellen Diggs
Treasurer .....	Sally Brown

Whang! Bang! Ouch! These are but a few of the sounds you might have heard last fall echoing from the Amphitheatre at the north side of the school. From the end of October to the end of November, an eager group of girls braved cold, windy weather to swing their hockey sticks for their respective teams.

Due to the great response from the Sophomore class, three teams of Sophomores were formed. The Seniors and Juniors formed the other two teams. The keen rivalry between the teams was intensified by the championship game necessary at the end of the season to determine the winning team.

The two teams, the Seniors and Sophomores, or Hurricane Kids, were so evenly matched that the game ended in a deadlock. Following are the scores of the games played:

Girls' Basketball

Coach: Charlotte A. Clauser

Phhhh! There goes the whistle again! Those referees have to be on their toes to watch for any fouls both personal and technical.

Seventy-five girls reported to Mrs. Clauser for basketball this season. For this season, the candidates were divided into eight teams with captains and managers selected.

The first few weeks were spent doing preliminary work, teaching the new girls, and learning how to handle the ball.

The season ended with the Seniors, Juniors, and Hurricanes in a deadlock. A championship game was played, however, with the Juniors coming forth as the better team.

Girls' Baseball

Coach: Charlotte A. Clauser

Baseball is one of the most popular sports for girls at Liberty High School. Although few Seniors and Juniors responded to the call, a large Sophomore representation made the season a success. The girls organized their teams, and after electing captains and managers were ready to play. The Juniors were the champions, while the Seniors ended in third place.

The captain and managers of the teams were as follows:

Seniors:

Anna M. Hoch, manager; Anna Kendzierski, captain.

Juniors:

Helen Gorscan, manager; Mary Lilak, captain.

Sophomores:

Canaries

McClellan Stauffer, captain; Doris Unangst, manager.

Cyclones

Dot Rajcok, manager; Phil. Tarola, captain.

Blue Lassies

Margaret Korpics, manager; Regina Sabol, captain.

Hurricanes

Margaret Antolics, captain; Irene Hudak, manager.

Girls' Swimming

Coach: Angeline B. Griffith

"Step to your mark—Go!" and all the lassies were off with a flying start to win laurels for their own class.

Under the splendid leadership of Mrs. Griffith and the individual Captains—June Eckert, Seniors; Helen May, Juniors; and Jean MacKay, Sophomores; this year's swimming season proved to be very successful.

One of the high points of the season was the participation in the Eastern Pennsylvania Scholastic swim meet held at the Broadwood Club in Philadelphia, in which several of the Bethlehem lassies won honors.

Results of Intramural Swimming Meets:

Life Saving

"Help! Help! Someone is drowning," is the cry that will often be heard this summer. But the witnesses will not have to worry for our girls will be there taking over the task of rescuing the victim.

The call for girls to enter the Life Saving class was readily answered by the ambitious lassies ready to take over the jobs previously held by the opposite sex, but now left to the girls, because of their duty to help Uncle Sam.

Under the splendid supervision of Mrs. Griffith, these girls have learned the fundamentals of Life Saving and may consider themselves a help to humanity.

Ad Libertatem

*Like a mother you did guide us,
As our friend you stand beside us,
Liberty, you will provide us
Wisdom to meet life.*

*Cloister, where from petty sorrow
We were freed, shaped for the morrow
We now face alone. We'd barrow
Your skill 'gainst our strife.*

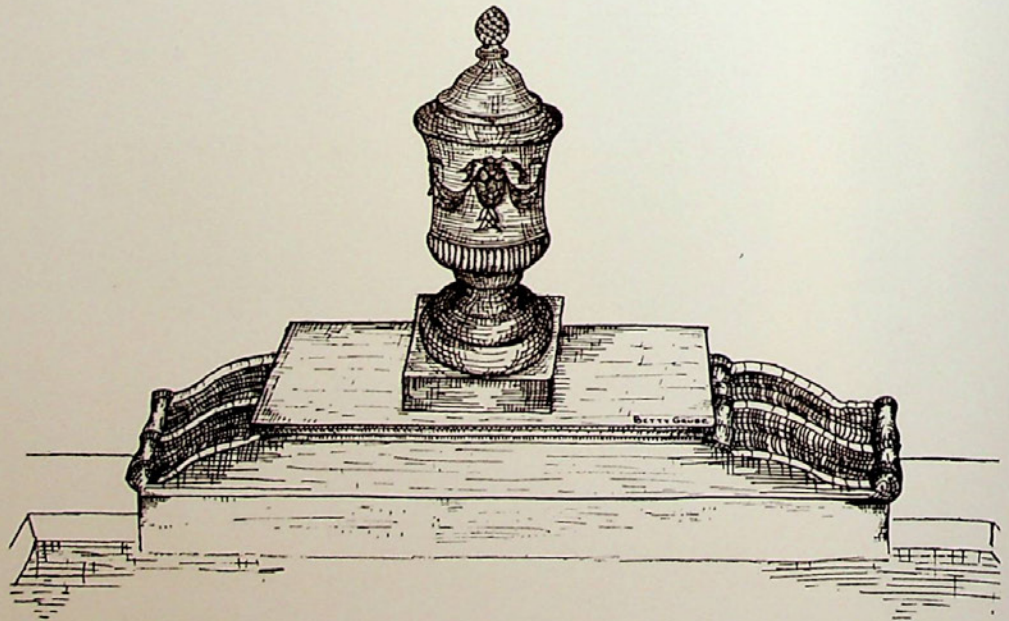

*Our most grateful hearts now render
Praise to you. Guardian, defender,
School without a peer, we tender
Thanks. Watch o'er our toil.*

*We'll say, "Farewell", leave this behind us,
Not to forget, nay, oft' remind us,
Ties of friendship made here bind us,
To these we'll be loyal.*

*May the Lord when we most need Him
Be beside us. May we heed Him,
By pride ne'er try to precede Him,
Trusting in His might.*

*Though dark clouds bedim our skies,
The bright sun shall soon arise,
To show our lives have gained the prize
Of a well-won fight.*

Last Will and Testament

We, the class of 1942, being of sound mind, or approaching in closest proximity to respective sanity as may be reasonably expected, after having consummated four years (perhaps five or six) of secondary education, possessing unduly turbulent memories in regard to higher learning, but endowed with affluent discernment, comprehending fully the situations which will arise after our worldly sagacious class has surrendered its eminent position to a class; namely, the Junior Class, lacking our intellectual aptitude of encountering critical circumstances, and wishing to alleviate as much as possible, the exigencies occasioned by said situation, and desiring to renounce anything that may unlawfully be ours, do hereby make known, manifest and publish, our last will and testament.

To our principal and teachers, we leave the memories (favorable and unfavorable) of the Class of '42.

To the Juniors we leave the incidentals we forgot to remember, hoping they will abide by our constitution and without reluctance inculcate it upon the minds of the Sophomores.

Also to the Junior Class we relinquish our title of "Seniors", presuming it will impart to them a deeper sense of responsibility and duty toward their Alma Mater.

To the Sophomores we leave our superfluous knowledge, hoping they appreciate our gift however small it may be.

Pat Martin leaves his ingenuity as class treasurer to any up and coming book-keeper of the Junior Class.

Henry Hartman wills his accomplishment of eating three sandwiches in five minutes to the Junior boys, just in case lunch periods are shortened.

Mary Titlow, Doris Roeder, and Helen Erdle have formed a "Brain Trust" to be conferred upon Audrey Barthold, Doris Handwerk, and Marjorie Benton.

Jack Luch gives his priceless lessons on "How to Influence Teachers" to Ed Cummings.

Jean Serman and Ruth Zehner are the beneficiaries of Velma Jayne Ritchey's and Virginia Lehman's pianistic ability.

Forrest Bast leaves his "grunt and groan artistry" to Howard Unangst.

Evelyn Schaffer and Albert Koehler leave their tete-a-tetes between bells to the next devoted couple.

To the baseball aspiring Juniors who never get to second, Homer Sideris relinquishes his well confirmed position.

Phyllis Werst bequeaths her winning smile to Barbara Collins.

Herman Bastianell and Leonard Luckenbach confer their ability to break chemical apparatus to the J. P. Morgans of the Junior Class.

Jean Hoffses wills her energizing force to Ginny Noll.

Last Will and Testament

Due to the paper shortage, the Economic students from 309 leave their notebooks to any paper-collecting Boy Scout.

The greatest classic of all times, the "Senior Bible", is bestowed upon the members of the Junior Class who have faithfully taken their vitamin pills and are now strong enough to carry this gigantic volume of English literature.

Rudy Traupman, Bill Kern and Henry Hartman leave their "wolfing" tactics to Eddie Christman, Joe Groeger, and Andrew Hutchinson.

The academic sages of the Senior Class will their great attributes to the less fortunate Juniors who are in dire need of them.

The privilege (?)—you will find out after you try to open it—of entering the front door is graciously passed down to the Juniors.

Janet Aldinger bequests her "gift of gab" to Elva Dollar.

Fred Feltaut wills his appreciation of music, centered chiefly around the "name" bands to Bob Ackerman.

Bert Bartlett leaves his genial personality to Bill Burtis.

Robert Geisendeifer surrenders his nickname "Oscar" to anyone whom Mr. Nagy thinks is deserving of it.

Emerson Miller wills his three athletic letters to Jimmy Case.

Merritt Jacoby bestows his executive ability upon Dick Smith.

The chemistry classes, respectively and collectively, will the hydrogen sulfide fumes generated in the laboratory during the year to all of the fresh air loving Juniors.

Lastly, we leave a bit of sound advice—never take the time to learn anything that you are positive can be found in an encyclopedia.

It is our last wish that the beneficiaries abide by the bequests of our last will and testament.

Having exerted all means to make this document legal according to the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, we, the Class of 1942, in the presence of witnesses whereof, do hereby affix our sign and seal on this fifteenth day of June, nineteen hundred and forty-two.

Class of 1942.

A Three Year Diary

The Silly Sophs

1939-40

It was astonishing to see the number of bewildered students entering Liberty High School this year. By their appearance I judged them to be Sophomores like myself; but surely, one would never guess that I was just a Sophomore—Well, at least none except the one of whom I inquired about taking the elevator to the third floor. I suppose she was a Junior, because she looked so very intelligent when she told me that the elevators were just for teachers and that 312 was a Senior study hall. Oh well, I didn't mind; I'll be a Junior in a year or two.

Sophomore
Class of '42

1940-41

At last a Junior! The very name is symbolic of knowledge and dignity. With this inspiration I entered Liberty in my Junior year. The stupid Sophomores swarmed the halls. Will they never grow up?

This year our class organized with Fritz Gebhardt as president; John Vatz, vice president; Evelyn Schaeffer, secretary; John Keefe, treasurer. Miss Eleanor Mumbauer and Mr. Joseph Gribbin were our class advisers.

During the year, our class was given excellent chances for self-government when Student Council, a representative body which settles problems pertaining to the school, and the class assemblies, the respective class legislative organization, were recognized as student governing bodies.

Our class planned to have several social activities this year. One of the first was a barn dance. Now that's funny, I don't seem to remember anything about a barn dance. Oh well, at least we had a successful movie benefit. The major event was the Junior Prom for which we set the precedent of choosing a senior girl to be Queen of the Junior Prom. On the memorable evening of June sixth, nineteen hundred forty-two, Miss June Jaxheimer, attended by four Junior girls, was crowned Miss Junior Prom.

And now that the June examinations have faded into the distance, I find myself justly rewarded for my efforts and look toward next September.

Junior
Class of '42

The Jolly Juniors

The Sophisticated Seniors

I was monarch of all I surveyed. I was a member of the Senior Class. Our sovereignty reigned throughout the school. After years of diligent struggle, we were dumb enough to be Seniors, and Seniors we were.

For our class officers we chose Merritt Jacoby, president; Homer Sideris, vice president; Jessie Ayre, secretary; and Patrick Martin, treasurer. According to a democratic policy, we elected representatives for Senior Assembly. Miss Eleanor Mum-bauer and Mr. Joseph Gribbin were our class advisers.

For the sport loving Seniors, the problem of what to do—anything except homework—on a Saturday afternoon was solved by attending the football games. The main sport event of the year was the bonfire and pep rally the evening before the Turkey Day game with Allentown. The highlight of the rally was the burning of an effigy of a large canary. Somehow this pep rally didn't do much good or, perhaps, we forgot to put the salt on the birds tail.

To provide the graduating class with a record of its three year mysterious,—and it was mysterious,—adventure, it was necessary to publish a yearbook. The seniors selected a staff to edit the Cauldron. Miss Frances McGettigan was the faculty adviser.

To provide funds for the Cauldron and Commencement expenses, we sponsored a movie which was more successful than last year. Of course we exerted more effort this year; a pure case of all brawn and no brain. The chief financial aid was the Senior Play. Under the direction of Misses Mary Crow and Sally Ann Geissinger, the class of 1942 produced three one act plays: Culture, A Night at an Inn, and Right About Face. The three plays gave more students an opportunity to take part in this prominent event.

With the Nation on an "All Out for Defense" schedule, we spent little time in school during the last month. Few of us worried about that because our worries were invested solely in the approaching examinations. They would be the verdict.

After gliding safely through exams,—with a point or two to spare,—we turned our thoughts to the social events. On June 5 we were guests of the Juniors at the Junior Prom.

The Class of '42 were the guests at the alumni reception. Early in June we entertained ourselves at Senior Class Day. What entertainment!

On Sunday, June 14, 1942, the class assembled to take part in the Baccalaureate service, the prelude to commencement. Today, June 15, 1942, the Class of 1942 was graduated from Liberty High School. The outstanding students received scholarships; we all received diplomas. And still ringing in my heart are the words:—

"Hail to Alma Mater dear"!

Treasure Chest of Memories

I

You've kept a little Treasure Box of memories,
And piled it high with thoughts of high school days.
They do not seem important now, those memories,
Such trivial things—there's naught that would amaze.

II

But years from now, when school days are behind you,
When you've left your books and gone upon your way,
You'll find each happy recollection will
Grow infinitely dearer, day by day.

III

And then you'll take the box, remove the cover,
And rummage through its contents, and you'll find
That half-forgotten memories will assail you,
And sweep away the cobwebs from your mind.

IV

You'll know again, as when you were a freshman,
The terror that you felt on that first morn.
You were so very small, and so bewildered.
Oh, how you felt the mighty sophomores' scorn.

V

But next you'll find a group of happy memories
You'll dust them off, and hold them to the light,
Recall the flush of pride you felt the day you
Translated one whole page of Caesar right.

VI

Some memories will, no doubt, cause you to chuckle.
You'll smile to think that by the Senior Plays
You were fired with a burning, secret passion
To become a second Bernhardt, or a Hayes.

VII

Most vividly of all you will remember
How you stood in cap and gown, and how you vowed
In years to come you'd be the kind of person
Who would always make your Alma Mater proud.

VIII

And when at last those memories all have vanished,
Then, classmate, you will realize anew
The pride and joy you felt at being a member of
The Class of Nineteen Hundred Forty-two.
