ERNEST J. ARANYOS

Three brothers serving in the Army, Navy and Marine Corps have all received promotions in grade, according to word received by their parents recently.

Paul J. Aranyos, now sergeant, has been serving in the U. S. Army since April, 1943. Overseas since October, 1944, he is a member of the Third Cavalry Group, commanded by Colonel James H. Polk, which was first to reach the Meuse River, first on the Moselle River and the first Americans in Thionville. This cavalry group made a 150 mile dash in three days from the Rhine River to the Fulda River where the entire infantry division was mo-
