

Vollman, Donald R.

Joins U. S. Navy

Donald Ray Vollman, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Vollman, of Hawthorne Road, has enlisted in the U. S. Navy and was sworn in on February 22. He left that day for Sampson, N. Y., to begin training.

He has been active in wrestling and other sports at Liberty High for the past two years. His father is a veteran of the First World War and a former baseball player, while an uncle, Archibald Welly Litz, also served in World War I. Donald has been a member of Johnson Legion Post Sons' Squadron.

He was given a farewell party and a gift of money by the managers and employes of the Central Bowling Alleys before his departure.
