

Windish, John J.

Lieut. John J. Windish
Prisoner Of War ^{JTW} 30 1944

Lieut. John W. Windish, Jr., son of Mrs. Mary Windish, 425 Hess Street, has been reported a prisoner of war, according to a telegram received by his mother from the War Department.

Lieut. Windish had been reported in yesterday's Globe-Times as "missing in action." He entered the service in June, 1942, and has been attached to a paratroop division.
