

Stecker Jr., Charles R.

Lt. Charles R. Stecker
Now on Inactive Duty

Lt. Charles R. Stecker Jr., 32, USNR, whose wife lives at 557 West Third Street, has been released to inactive duty by the Navy's Separation Center at the Philadelphia Navy Yard.

Lieut. Stecker served overseas in the Atlantic and Pacific theaters for 17 months aboard the USS YMS 20 and USS Indiatue. He has participated in the invasions of Anzio and southern France.

He graduated from Penn State College in 1935, and prior to entering the Navy, was employed by the Bethlehem Steel Company.

November 14, 1945