

Zarinsky, John
Walter

Pre-Holiday Dinner Tendered Servicemen

Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Zarinsky, 1803 Canal Street, Northampton, welcomed her two sons, Sgt. John Zarinsky and Ensign Walter Zarinsky, with a pre-Yule dinner on Sunday evening, attended by relatives and friends, observing the occasion of both brothers home on leaves. Attending this dinner were John and Walter Zarinsky, Mildred Zarinsky, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Petho and daughter Phyllis, Mr. and Mrs. John Matthews and daughter, Connie, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Flisak, Wanda and Edward Flisak, Mary Laubach and Ann Sweetz.

Sgt. John Zarinsky, stationed with the U. S. Army at Fort Lewis, Wash., is home on a fifteen-day furlough, and must be back on duty Dec. 25. Ensign Walter Zarinsky, stationed with the U. S. Navy at Lakehurst Airport, N. J., was home on a three-day leave. Both brothers are well known in sports, Walter having played on various football teams and John on baseball and bowling teams.
