

Wolk, Charles H., Jr.

Made Corporal

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Wolk Sr., 1447 Broadway, Fountain Hill, were informed Tuesday by their son, Charles H. Wolk Jr., who is with the Army somewhere in the Caribbean Sea area, that on July 8 he was promoted to the rank of corporal radio technician.

Corp. Wolk was graduated from Fountain Hill High School in June, 1942. The following August 13 he was inducted into the military service and sent to New Cumberland. From New Cumberland he was sent to Atlantic City, N. J., and later to a radio technician school at Madison, Wis., for 22 weeks of instruction. From Madison he went to New Orleans and since last February he has been attached to the 28th Fighter Squadron in the Caribbean Sea area.

Corp. Wolk visited his parents last in December, 1942, between Christmas and New Year on an eight-day furlough. On January 19, 1943, he attained the age of 22 years. JUL 14 1943
