Ethel V. Lewis Becomes Bride At Reno, Nev.

Miss Ethel Victoria Lewis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lewis, Mansfield Court, and granddaughter of Mrs. Anna Cropper, 1542 Center Street, with whom she resided, became the bride of Sgt. William D. Randall, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. David Randall, of the Bath Pike, at Reno, Nevada. The Rev. Brewster Adams performed the ceremony. News of the wedding came by special delivery letter to the families today.

The bride wore an aqua suit with black accessories and a corsage of red roses. Mrs. Alex Levine, the bride's attendant, wore a wine colored dress and a gardenia corsage. Sgt. Marvin Goldberg served as the best man.

A reception followed the ceremony at the home of Sgt. and Mrs. William Josephson, Riverside Drive, Reno. For the present the couple will reside at the Hotel Golden, Reno.

The bride was graduated from Liberty High school, attended Bethlehem Business College and was formerly employed as secretary to I. Paul Handwerk, principal of Franklin Junior High school.

The bridegroom was graduated from Moravian Preparatory school and Moravian College for Men. Last July he returned from 18 months service in Africa. At present he is an instructor in advanced radio operations at the Reno Army Air Base.
