

Spadt, Francis
Edward

Missing

Pfc. Francis Spadt, son of Mrs. Mary Spadt, 747 Turner Street, Allentown, has been reported missing in action in Germany since December 16 in a War Department telegram received by his mother. Overseas since September, 1944. Pfc. Spadt received his training at Fort Custer, Mich.; Fort Jackson, S. C., and Camp Attaberry, Ind. A former Bethlehem resident, he had been residing in Detroit for the past few years. A brother, Cpl. Edward, is serving in Holland.

January 18, 1945