Seaman Moretz Expects
To Take Part in Navy
Day Celebration

11 1945

Louis Moretz, Seaman 1/C, "G-1 Lucky" winner of two weeks ago, will take part in the Navy Day celebration in New York Harbor October 27, according to word received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moretz, 613 Hess Street, today.

Seaman 1/C Moretz, a machinist and gunner aboard the USS Macon, is now in Cuba. His ship will be one of the largest of four cruisers, two battleships to take part in the Navy ceremonies. According to Moretz, the Macon will be anchored beside another world famous ship, the Missouri, on which the Jap peace terms were signed.

The young sailor entered the service last May and received his training at Sampson, N. Y.; Newport, R. I., and Philadelphia before going to sea. He is a graduate of Bethlehem Technical High School.
