

Chayka, William J.

Second Award

OCT 23 1944

AN EIGHTH AIR FORCE BOMBER STATION, England.
—2nd Lt. William J. Chayka, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Chayka, has been awarded a second Oak Leaf Cluster to the Air Medal while serving as bombardier of a Flying Fortress at the base commanded by Col. H. W. Bowman, Arlington, Va.
The citation accompanying the award reads: "For meritorious achievement while participating in sustained combat bombardment missions over Germany and German-occupied countries. The courage, coolness and skill displayed by Lt. Chayka on all these occasions reflect the highest credit upon himself and the armed forces of the United States."

October 23, 1944