

Finkbeiner, Richard J.

Earns Chevron
JAN 5 1946

Richard J. Finkbeiner, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Finkbeiner, Butztown, received his first stripe upon enlisting in the regular army for one year.

Pfc. Finkbeiner, who re-enlisted at Salt Lake, Utah, where he was last stationed, is home on an enlistment furlough of 30 days. At the completion of his furlough he will report for an overseas assignment.

The young soldier enlisted in the Air Corps Enlisted Reserves August 16, 1944, and was called to active duty April 14, 1945. After completing his basic at Sheppard Field, Texas, he attended Airplane Sheet Metal School at Chanute Field, Ill., and proceeded to his present station.
