

Illes, Louis

HE'S A "TOP KICK" NOW—Promotion of Louis Illes, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Illes, Bethlehem R. D. 4, from the rank of private, first class, to that of sergeant in the United States Army has been announced by his superior officers, word to his family indicates. Sgt. Illes, who was for some time stationed at the Aberdeen (Md.) Proving Grounds, is at present at Camp Callen, San Diego, Calif. He was an employe of the Bethlehem Steel Company before his enlistment in March of 1941. He attended the Bethlehem schools.

7-18-1942

Jul 18, 1942