

Shifter, Ernest

Completes Furlough

Today, Warrant Officer Ernest Shifter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shifter, 819 Laufer Avenue, will return to an undisclosed base at the completion of his first furlough at home since Christmas 1941. Officer Shifter enlisted in the Marines in December 1937. Since that time, he has participated in five major battles and has recently seen action in the Southwest Pacific, the Solomons, New Britain and New Guinea.
