WAVES START SERVICE.

Misses Margaret K. Madden, Frances E. Meck and Betty M. Stolp all of Bethlehem were among the 47 WAVES who entrained in Philadelphia yesterday for the WAVES officers training school at Smith College, Northampton, Mass. Assigned from the Fourth Naval District at Smith, they will join more than 800 other women from all parts of the country. They enter the school as apprentice seamen and after one month's indoctrination in naval administration, rules and regulations, will begin three months training as midshipmen, the first WAVES to hold that title.
