

Strawn, Harold

Local Soldier Reported Missing After Combat Duty Over Berlin

A telegram was received yesterday at noon by Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Strawn, 1214 Maple Street, from the War Department stating that their son, Sgt. Harold Strawn, a member of the United States Army Air Corps, was missing in action during combat duty over Berlin Dec. 30, 1943.

Sgt. Strawn enlisted Nov. 28, 1941, and was assigned to Jefferson Barracks, near St. Louis, Mo., where he passed the entrance examination for Chanute. He was graduated May 7, 1942, from the aeronautical technical school at Chanute Field, Rantoul, Ill. He was sent overseas March 10, 1943, and has been in England since May, 1943.

It was learned that Sgt. Strawn had recently received an air medal though no word had been received from him in regard to the award.
