Chas. Korpics Suffers Second Battle Wound

NOV 1 1944

Pfc. Charles Korpics, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Korpics, 508 Cherokee Street, received a telegram from the War Department last night informing them that their son had been wounded in action in Germany, October 13.

Inducted November 16, 1943, he received his training at Camp Bland, Fla., and Fort Meade, Md., before shipping overseas in May, 1943. This is the second time Pfc. Korpics has been wounded. The first time was June 6 in France, for which he received the Purple Heart.

He was employed by the Bethlehem Steel Company prior to his induction and had attended Holy Ghost School.

Three brothers are also serving overseas. S. 1-c. Daniel R., stationed on Oahu; S. 1-c. William L., somewhere in the South Pacific; and S. 1-c. Louis W., probably on Saipan.
