

Beck, Alfred T.

Youths From Area Become Air Cadets

AUG 15 1944

Three young men from Northampton and three youths from adjoining territories have enrolled as aviation cadets in the pre-flight school at Maxwell Field, Ala., an installation of the Army Air Forces Training Command.

At Maxwell Field the Cadets will receive nine weeks of intensive military, physical and academic training.

The three cadets are: Alfred T. Beck, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond T. Beck, 1927 Washington Avenue; Edward F. Unger, son of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Unger 932 Washington Street, and Herbert W. Gillespie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Gillespie, 1774 Main Street.

Also enrolled are Thomas F. Dopsovic, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Dopsovic, 1017 Blackberry Street, Catasaqua; Willoughby C. Frantz, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Frantz of Neffs, and Wilson D. Rehrig, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Rehrig of Ashfield.

Aug. 15, 1944