

Mary McKinnon Is Wedded To Pfc. C. J. Boehm

FEB 7 1945

At 5:30 p. m., Monday, Miss Mary Ann McKinnon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter McKinnon, of 923 Cayuga Street, this city, and Pfc. Calvin J. Boehm, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin J. Boehm, of 1330 Washington Street, Hellertown, were married in Christ Evangelical and Reformed Church, Hellertown. The Rev. Adam E. Schellhase officiated.

Mr. McKinnon gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a gown of rose point lace over satin, a long veil of tulle and rose point falling from a Juliet cap and carried a white Bible with orchid marker.

Her maid of honor, Miss Mary Louise Callahan, of Hellertown, wore rose point lace over orchid taffeta and her bridesmaid, Miss Lucille Bean, of Hellertown, rose point over chartreuse taffeta. They both wore Juliet caps and carried blue iris and yellow snapdragons.

Paul Boehm was his brother's best man and Roy Bean and Arch Simons of Hellertown were ushers.

The church was decorated with white snapdragons. Ralph Dorshimer, organist, played the traditional wedding marches.

A reception followed in the Hotel Bethlehem Fountain Room, after which the couple left on a wedding trip to New York. The bride will reside with her parents on her return.

The bride is a graduate of Liberty High School and attended Bethlehem Business College. She is employed in the main office of the Bethlehem Steel Company. The bridegroom, a graduate of Hellertown High School, completed his apprenticeship at the Bethlehem Steel Company and is now serving in the Army. He will return to Fort Sill, Okla., at the conclusion of his furlough.
