Naval Air School

August G. Zart, son of Mr. and Mrs. August Zart, 311 North New Street, and Kenneth W. Rice, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Rice, Jr., of 328 Northampton Street, Hellertown, are recent graduates at the U. S. Naval Air Station, at Jacksonville, Fla.

Zart, who entered the Navy September 25, 1943, received the rate of Aviation Electrician's Mate Third Class after graduating from the Aviation Electrician's Mate School. He received his recruit training at Sampson, N. Y., before being transferred to Florida, and is now qualified to serve as Aviation Electrician's Mate with a Naval air unit.

Rice was promoted to seaman first class after completion of the training at the Aviation Radioman School, and is now a qualified aviation radioman, scheduled for operational training. He entered the Navy on December 22, 1943, and also received his recruit training at Sampson, N. Y. He will probably see service as a Naval aircrewman in the future.
