

Carraghan, Dallett

LIKE LIFE IN ENGLAND

Writing to his parents here in Bethlehem, Pfc. Dallett Carraghan, 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Carraghan, 925 Spring Street, says that he is enjoying his new experiences as a soldier of Uncle Sam stationed in England.

A member of the Army Air Force bomber squadron, Carraghan has been in the service since December, 1941, enlisting shortly after Pearl Harbor. He was stationed at Jefferson Barracks, Mo., Spokane, Washington, and Camp Killmer, N. J., from which he was shipped overseas early in June. Just before leaving he was home on a brief visit to see his family.

Pvt. Carraghan is a former Bethlehem Steel Company employe of the open hearth department. He attended Fountain Hill High School.
