

Lux, Leonard

Gets Badge

SEP 28 1944

Serving in the U. S. Army in Italy and France, Pvt. Leonard Lux, son of Mrs. Ida M. Lux, 606 Flot Street, Fountain Hill, has received the Infantry Combat Badge for exemplary conduct under fire against the Germans, according to a letter received by his mother.

He has been fighting in the Mediterranean area since last February. He has also received the campaign ribbon and bronze star.

According to a letter written by him on August 24, he is now stationed in southern France.

September 28, 1944