

Wasko, Joseph

Aerial Gunner

DEC 17 1943

Sergeant Joseph Wasko, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mathew Wasko, of 834 Lamb Street, has just recently completed his schooling at Buckingham Gunnery School at Fort Meyers, Fla. On December 7, at an impressive Pearl Harbor ceremony he received his aerial gunner wings and his sergeant's stripes. Sgt. Wasko is now spending a 10-day furlough with his parents and friends. After his furlough he will go to his new base at Drew Field, Tampa, Fla.

December 17, 1943