

Ronca, Pat

Sergeant Ronca

Sgt. Pat Ronca, who joined the Army during his sophomore year at Lehigh University, March, 1943, was recently promoted to his present grade on Saipan, where he is discharging men.

Sgt. Ronca was sent to Camp Swift, Texas, after his induction, as a member of the 97th Infantry. He transferred to A. S. T. P. unit at Lake Forrest College, Ill. and stayed there until the program was abandoned. Returning to the 96th Division, he took part in the Leyte and Okinawa campaigns, where he was wounded. His wife, the former Miss Elizabeth Wieand, resides on Route 3, this city.

November 2, 1945