

Bartholomew, Bernice M.

GRADUATE COOK

Fully trained in the art of army cooking, Auxiliary Bernice M. Bartholomew, 303 Martin's Lane, Bethlehem, is one of the graduates of the Bakers and Cooks school at the Second WAAC Training Center, Daytona Beach, Fla.

The regular army bakers and cooks school system of training is used in the WAAC school. During the six weeks of preparation for work on an army post, the WAACS cook in the mess halls on this post and have two hours of classroom study daily. Auxiliary Bartholomew is a first cook

APR 29 1943

April 29, 1943.