

Havassy, Arthur F.

Sgt. Arthur Havassy
On Way Home
After Pacific Duty

SEP 5 1945
HARMON FIELD, Guam—Sgt. Arthur F. Havassy, Cleveland, O., and Bethlehem, Pa., left this B-29 supply and maintenance base on August 21 for a personnel center en route to the United States, according to Col. O. F. Carlson, commanding officer of the Guam Air Depot. He has 122 discharge credit points.

Sgt. Havassy entered the service on July 21, 1939, and arrived at Guam as a cook with an aircraft repair squadron early in November, 1944. He has been awarded the Meritorious Unit Citation badge, the Asiatic-Pacific theater of operations ribbon with a bronze service star for participation in the Western Pacific campaign, the American Defense Service ribbon and the Good Conduct medal.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Havassy, live at 958 Paxton Road, Cleveland, and his wife, Mrs. Ruth Pike Havassy, and their two children, at Route 2, Bethlehem.

September 5, 1945