

Green, John P.

GIVEN SEND-OFF PARTY.

John P. Green, 421 West Market Street, was given a send-off party last night by 125 of his friends at the Keystone Trail Inn. Mr. Green will leave for officer training school in the Army on Saturday.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Green and was graduated from the Bethlehem High School and the Bethlehem Business College. He was formerly employed by the Columbia Jobing Company of Allentown, as assistant manager, and for the last six months has been the assistant to the manager of the special contracts division in the Bethlehem Steel Company.

During the semi-formal affair he received congratulatory telegrams from the general managers of both places of former employment.
