

Michael, Frank

Gets Combat Badge In Philippines

WITH THE 32ND INFANTRY DIVISION IN THE PHILIPPINES—Staff Sgt. Frank Michael, husband of Mrs. Catherine Michael, who with their two children, Mildred and James, lives at 901 Vernon Street, Bethlehem, Pa., has been awarded the Combat Infantry Badge for exemplary conduct in action against the enemy. APR 17 1945

Sgt. Michael, serving as a platoon guide in an infantry company of the veteran 32nd Infantry Division, is now in action with this unit on Luzon in the Philippines.

Entering the Army in June, 1942, Sgt. Michael came overseas in November 1944 where he was assigned to the famed Red Arrow Division. He has a son, Robert Michael, in the Army Air Corps, somewhere in the southwest Pacific. The sergeant's father, Howard Michael, lives at 1052 Wyandotte Street, Bethlehem.
