

Creitz Jr., Walter M.

RETURN TO ILLINOIS

Pvt. Walter M. Creitz, Jr., has returned to the University of Illinois after spending a week's furlough with his parents. He will enter his second semester in the Army Specialized Training Program. Pvts. Alvin Shoemaker and William Heimbrook, who also spent furloughs at their respective homes, have also returned to the same university where they will enter basic training after completing a refresher course.

November 8, 1943