

Reichl, William

GRADUATES MAY 13 1943

S 2/c William Reichl, son of Officer and Mrs. William Reichl, is home on a seven-day furlough after graduating from basic training school at Sampson, N. Y.

The youth entered the Navy two and one-half months ago, having graduated from Liberty High School this year. He had a perfect attendance record of 12 years while in public school.

Seaman Reichl is a former Globe-Times carrier and will attend pharmacist's school upon return to duty.

May 13, 1943