

Nonnemaker, Albert P.

Main Street Soldier Gets Conduct Medal

HEADQUARTERS, 13TH AAF, SOUTHWEST PACIFIC—Pfc. Albert P. Nonnemaker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Nonnemaker, 1111
North Main Street, Bethlehem, Pa., has been awarded the Army Good Conduct Medal.

The medal, 13th AAF headquarters announced, was awarded to the Bethlehem soldier in recognition of his "exemplary behavior, efficiency and fidelity" in the service.

Nonnemaker is a member of the headquarters squadron of the 13th AAF, veteran "jungle air force" which began its campaign in the Battle of Guadalcanal and now attacks enemy bases and shipping in Borneo, the Dutch East Indies and the Philippines.

Prior to his enlistment in the AAF in April, 1943, Nonnemaker was employed as a machinist apprentice. He attended Penn School and Liberty High School.

He is a member of the Odd Fellows Lodge.
