

Dietrich Jr., Warren C.

Receives Wings

Captain Warren C. Dietrich Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Dietrich Sr., 516 Maple Street, received his wings and was made flight sergeant May 12, at the Army Air Field, Dalhart, Texas. Captain Dietrich was graduated from Moravian College, Temple Medical School, Philadelphia, and interned at the Sacred Heart Hospital, Allentown. He was resident physician at the hospital for one year and before entering the service August, 1942, practiced in Bethlehem with offices at 727 West Broad Street. Various camps where he has been stationed since in the service are Cochran Field, Macon, Georgia; George Army Air Field, Lawrenceville, Illinois; Maxwell Field, Montgomery, Alabama; Randolph Field, San Antonio, Texas; Station Hospital Training School, Army Air Field, Dalhart, Texas; Army Air Field, School of Aviation, Orlando, Florida, and at the present time is stationed at Dalhart, Texas.

June 5, 1944