

Garcia, John
Eugene

Gonzalez Brothers Up-Graded

Mr. and Mrs. Roman Garcia, 736 East Third Street, Bethlehem, have been informed that their two sons, John, left, and Eugene, right, of their advancement in rank by their respective services. John is now a petty officer third class and is with the Pacific fleet. He enlisted June 20, 1942, boot trained at Newport, R. I., served as signalman in the Mediterranean area and was recently sent out to the Pacific, where his whereabouts is a source of speculation. Eugene is now a private first class and is celebrating his 21st birthday today, Armistice Day, at Hattiesburg Air Base, Miss. He was inducted into the Army February 5.
