

Kametz, George T.

Warrant Officer

Warrant Officer George T. Kametz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Kametz, 510 East Fifth Street, is spending a 10-day furlough here. He was inducted into the Army, June 28, 1941, at New Cumberland, Md., and advanced to corporal February 12, 1942. He was stationed at Fort Bliss, Texas, and in August, 1942, was advanced to master sergeant at Philadelphia. He was transferred from Philadelphia to Camp Hulen, Texas, and in June, 1943, was made a warrant officer, now stationed at Shreveport, La. Prior to his induction into the Army Warrant Officer Kametz was employed by the Bethlehem Steel Company. He graduated from Liberty High School. He is married to the former Miss Anna Volkay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dimitri Volkay, 1336 E. Third Street. Warrant Officer Kametz will return to his duty Sunday by plane.
