

Kohl Jr., Royal L.

Nazareth WAC
Corporal's Bride 9 1944

The marriage of Miss Olga Yeska, WAC, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Yeska, of Nazareth, and Cpl. Royal Leo Kohl, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Kohl, of 1413 Cortland Street, this city, took place Saturday in Zion Evangelical and Reformed Church. The Rev. Dr. C. A. Butz officiated.

Given in marriage by her brother, Henry Yeska, the bride was attended by Mrs. Frank Schumacher, of Bethlehem, as matron of honor and her sister, Miss Edna Yeska, as maid of honor.

Mr. Schumacher was the bridegroom's best man and William Gold, of Nazareth, was usher. Mrs. Elam Bealer played the traditional wedding music.

The bride attended Nazareth schools and is stationed with the Woman's Army Corps in Manchester, N. H. The bridegroom is a graduate of Herndon High School and attended Purdue University. He enlisted February 10, 1940 and has had 3½ years of foreign service in Alaska and the Aleutians.

The couple will return to Bethlehem tomorrow after a brief honeymoon and will leave Friday for Manchester, where the bride will return to duty and the bridegroom will spend the remainder of his furlough.
