

Williamson, James

Arrives in Bavaria

Arriving from the States, set to do his part in the Army Air Forces Occupational tasks, Pvt. James E. Williamson, son of C. M. Williamson, 513 Tenth Ave., checked in with the 354th Fighter Group of the 64th Fighter Wing located at the Herzo Army Air Base, Herzogenaurach, Bavaria. JAN 30 1946

With only nine points to his credit, Williamson appeared optimistic in regard to his future overseas, and satisfied to have reached an assigned unit. His present group was the first to fly Mustangs in combat in the European Theater.
