

City Council candidates on the pandemic

The Bethlehem Gadfly Candidates for election, Election April 27, 2021

 Latest in a series of posts on candidates for election

Bethlehem City Democrat Committee
City Council candidate forum April 12

Council candidates: Callahan, Crampsie Smith, Kwiatek, Leon, Wilhelm

“The pandemic has had a huge impact on all of our citizens and businesses over the last year. What do you see as the biggest priority for City Council to help get our city back on a forward track?”

Grace Crampsie Smith

“Continue to fight the virus . . . small businesses . . .
Department of Health . . . homelessness . . . housing.”

Audio Player not available in this archive

Rachel Leon

“We have to really start adjusting to climate change.”

Kiera Wilhelm

“A vaccine equity initiative . . . multi-lingual programs to educate folks about the vaccine . . . mortgages and rent relief . . . schools . . . small businesses . . . make funding easy to get.”

Bryan Callahan

“We have to be very careful about what we are doing with our tax rate.”

Hillary Kwiatek

“We need to look at this problem not just from one community but the many communities that make up our city.”

to be continued . . .