

Masteller, Royce M.

COMPLETES ENGINEERING
COURSE AT CORNELL

JAN 15 1943

Ensign Royce Masteller to Report
at Charleston, S. C.

Ensign Royce M. Masteller, U. S. N. R., this week completed a course in Diesel engineering at Cornell University. He and Mrs. Masteller are spending several days at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George J. Masteller, 647 Washington Avenue.

Formerly on the faculty of Nitschmann Junior High School, Mr. Masteller spent four months last Summer at the United States Naval Academy, Annapolis, and entered Cornell in September. He will report to the naval station at Charleston, South Carolina, for active duty.

Mrs. Masteller, a teacher at Nuremberg, near Hazleton, will continue her work there. Both Ensign and Mrs. Masteller are graduates of Bloomsburg State Teachers College.

January 15, 1943