Twin Brothers Join Nation's Armed Forces

James and John Ilkovich, twin sons of Constable and Mrs. John Ilkovich, 1320 East Fifth st., who did the brother act on the varsity football team at Liberty High School a few years ago, are now wearing the country's uniforms.

"Jimmy," who recently completed a four months course at a Coast Guard school, is stationed at Boston. He has a rank coming up, according to information received by his parents.

"Johnny" is a petty officer, third class. He completed a course at a naval school in Tennessee, and was subsequently transferred to San Diego, Cal.
