

Martin Tower: just how “hot” was it in 2015? (12)

The Bethlehem Gadfly Gadfly's posts, Martin Tower, Serious Issues April 11, 2019

Just take the “Connecting Bethlehem” survey, wouldya?
(12th in a series on Martin Tower)

*Initial sketch plans for Martin Tower site at Planning Commission
4PM today Thursday April 11 Town Hall
Martin Tower demolition May 19*

How hot was it? Pretty damn hot. This ought to give you an idea. Think another heat wave is coming?

IMPORTANT MEETING
For All Bethlehem Residents
Interested In Restoring
Good Government To Your City
7:00PM TUESDAY - DECEMBER 15, 2015
BETHLEHEM CITY COUNCIL MEETING
BETHLEHEM CITY HALL ROTUNDA - CHURCH STREET

Speak Out To Demand Our City Council Perform Their Role Of “Check And Balance”

Reject The Amended Martin Tower Property Rezoning Ordinance.

- Right to know information obtained verifies significant misrepresentations by the Doncher Administration.
- City Administration misrepresented the extensive developer influence in the drafting of the ordinance.
- The Administration misled the citizens of Bethlehem, Planning Commission, and ultimately City Council on several fronts.
- No Plan presented by developer to the Planning Commission or City Council.
- Rezoning with multiple state subsidies enables the developer to create a 3rd Downtown.
- Rezoning coupled with free state grant money benefits one private developer at the expense of existing downtowns and surrounding businesses.
- Studies not provided for community, economic or traffic impacts.
- No independent study provided to justify demolition of a National Historic Register listed landmark building.

DON'T LET “POLITICS AS USUAL”
RUIN BETHLEHEM'S IMAGE

 Follow us on Facebook at www.facebook.com/saveourdowntowns/
Brought to you by Save Our Downtowns.

Just take the “Connecting Bethlehem” survey, wouldya?