

Miller, Robert E.

Robert E. Miller
Gets Silver Bar

Robert E. Miller, son of Mrs. Annie E. Miller, 327 West Market Street, has recently been advanced to the rank of first lieutenant, according to information received by his wife, the former Elizabeth Kidd, Allentown.

Lt. Miller serves as base statistical control officer with the Central Pacific Wing of the Army Air Forces Transport Command. He entered the service in April, 1941 and was connected with the 28th Infantry Division until he transferred to the Air Corps in 1942. Lt. Miller completed his training at the Statistical School, Harvard University in 1944.

A graduate of Penn State, Lt. Miller was affiliated in civilian life with the Miller Motor Company and with City Motors, Inc.

January 31, 1945