

Korpics, Daniel

Three High-Point Local Navy Veterans On Way Home

Three high-point Navy veterans from this city are coming back to the States through the Navy's "Magic Carpet" fleet.

Daniel R. Korpics, CM 3/C, USNR, son of Mrs. Anna Korpics, 508 Cherokee Street, and Walter S. Diefenderfer, BM 1/C, 48 West Fairview Street, are two of 1,250 high-pointers coming home aboard the USS Faerisle, which left Okinawa November 15 and is scheduled to arrive in San Francisco about December 1.

Leonard R. Repash, CSF, USNR, son of Frank Repash, 618 South Lynn Street, is coming aboard the USS Diphda, carrying over 300 veterans. The Diphda left Okinawa

November 14 and is also scheduled to arrive in San Francisco about December 1.

The three veterans will go directly to Separation Centers nearest their homes to complete the formalities of obtaining their discharges and should be home in time for Christmas.

Nov. 30, 1945