

McNamara, John R.

Sgt. McNamara
Now A Prisoner,
Parents Told

Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. McNamara, 430 Birkel Avenue, received word that their son, Tech. Sergeant John R. McNamara, previously reported missing in action since Nov. 7, 1944, is now a prisoner of war in Germany.

T. Sgt. McNamara has been serving overseas with the First Army for the past 14 months. He participated in the invasion of Normandy and was with one of the first divisions to march victoriously through Paris.

His wife, the former Anne Sinclair, resides at 55 East Ettwein Street.
