

Fissel, Robert J.

Hurt in Germany

Private First Class Robert J. Fissel was slightly wounded November 9, 1944, in Germany while in action with the infantry during the Aachen drive. According to latest information received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fissel, 60 East Greenwich Street, he was sent to a station hospital somewhere in England where he sufficiently recovered to transfer to the Air Corps. Pfc. Fissel enlisted October 14, 1943, while attending Bethlehem Technical High School. He trained at Camp Wheeler, Ga., and Fort Benning Ga., before going overseas in June, 1944.
