

Demianow, John

Pfc. John Demianow
Recovers From Wounds

Pfc. John Demianow, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Dominick, 1318 East Fourth Street, Bethlehem, who was recently reported to have been wounded in action in the European theater of the war, has been released from a government hospital where he was recuperating from shrapnel wounds in the head, according to word received today by his mother. JUN 12 1943

The 23-year-old soldier was cited last March for his bravery in administering first aid to an injured comrade under fire.

June 12, 1943