

Bournias, George J.

Sgt. George J. Bournias
Discharged From AAF

Sgt. George J. Bournias was honorably separated from the Army Air Force at Andrews Field, Md., on November 28. Sgt. Bournias served as a gunner, enlisted navigator, photographer and allotment clerk during his tour of duty which embraced service in this country at Selman Field, La., Ellington Field, Tex., Casper, Wyo., and with the 460th Bomb Group 761 B Squadron in the European theater. He has been awarded the Air Medal, ETO service ribbon with four battle stars and American Theater ribbon.

Prior to entering the Army Air Force, Sgt. Bournias was a student at Liberty High School, and plans to continue his education upon his return to civil life. DEC 1 1945

Dec 1, 1945