

Beveridge, Wayne F.

Pfc. Wayne Beveridge
At Assembly Area
For Redeployment¹ 1945

Pfc. Wayne F. Beveridge, 421 Sheetz Street, is a member of a refrigeration company which has arrived at Camp Brooklyn in the Assembly Area Command, France, as the first phase of its direct redeployment from Europe to the Pacific.

A mobile unit, Beveridge's company landed in England in March, 1944, and immediately began hauling perishable food from cold storage plants to the troops awaiting the invasion day signal.
