

Weaversville, Wilkins

WEAVERSVILLE DOCTOR GETS NAVY COMMISSION

DEC 5 1942

Dr. B. D. Wilkins, Weaversville physician, has been commissioned a lieutenant in the U. S. Navy and has been ordered to report for duty Monday at Port Deposit Naval Training Station in Bainbridge, Md.

Dr. Wilkins practiced in Weaversville during the past eight years and during that time took post graduate work on rectal diseases in the Howard Post Graduate School, Boston, Hahremann and Temple universities, Philadelphia.

He is married to the former Lavinia Fasy, Germantown. The couple are the parents of three daughters, Patricia, Judith and Phoebe. They will accompany Lieutenant Wilkins to Philadelphia. They will maintain residence in their home at Weaversville.

Dec. 5, 1942