

Dubbs, Charles W.

Now a Technician

Charles W. Dubbs, 910 Ostrum Street, has recently been promoted from Private to Technician 5 Grade.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. E. Dubbs, same address and has been in the Army since December 3, 1942. He came overseas in June 1943 and is currently serving with the 7th Army in the European Theater.

Tech 5th Grade Dubbs attended Fountain Hill High School and East Stroudsburg State Teachers College.

He was promoted for meritorious effort while serving with Lieutenant General Alexander M. Patch's famed Seventh Army in France.

October 23, 1944